We knew our bold martyr by his humbleness and his love for Jihad and sacrifice. Many times he talked about martyrdom and he truly sought it, and Allah has led him to it in memory of the distinguished Hijra of the prophet [i.e. the migration of Muhammad and his followers from Mecca to Medina in 622 AD], while his model in this regard was the first Fida'i [one who sacrifices himself] in the history of Islam, Ali ibn Abi Taleb... And his name was Fadi, in the meaning of a Fida'i in the way of Allah. As we congratulate the family of our dear martyr, his brothers and his friends in the 'al-Quds' Open University, we say that: "The heart aches and the eyes tear up - for your departure, O Fadi, we are grief-stricken". We find comfort in his deed of killing and wounding Jews, and at the same time we affirm our determination to fulfill the promise to sow fear in the hearts of the sons of apes, for his brothers in the martyrs' convoy await the zero-hour... to join the convoy of martyrdom and to meet our martyr in Paradise... "But they have never changed [their determination] in the least..." [al-Ahzab, 23]

Our struggling Palestinian people... Our Islamic and Arab nation...

At the time, we refrained from revealing the name of our hero martyr, who is third in the line of the ten messenger martyrs, to the media for security reasons, decreed by the nature of the battle for our blessed land, and we promise to Allah first, and then to you, that we will avenge the blood of our martyr Fadi, and the blood of the martyrs before him – may Allah have mercy upon them – and we announce to Sharon and his small council of swines that our operations and the actions of our warriors will rob them of their sleep, until they will leave our land, defeated and disappointed.

"...And soon will the unjust assailants know what vicissitudes their affairs will take!" [al-Shu'ara, 227]

Truly the Jihad is victory or martyrdom
